Dear [Recipient's Name],

I am writing to formally appeal the disciplinary action imposed on me as a result of the recent findings regarding drug-related offenses. I understand the seriousness of the situation and appreciate the institution's commitment to maintaining a safe and conducive learning environment.

On [Insert Date of Incident], I was found in violation of [insert specific policy or guideline]. I acknowledge my actions and their potential implications. However, I would like to present my perspective regarding the incident and the steps I am taking to ensure this does not happen again.

Firstly, I would like to explain [briefly describe circumstances surrounding the incident]. I believe this context is essential in understanding my actions and intentions at that time.

Secondly, I have taken proactive measures to address my behavior. This includes [mention any counseling, rehabilitation, or support programs you have initiated or participated in]. My goal is to demonstrate my commitment to personal growth and responsibility.

I kindly ask that you reconsider the disciplinary decision. I am hopeful that a more lenient approach could allow me to remain a productive member of the school community while continuing to address my challenges effectively.

Thank you for considering my appeal. I am willing to meet and discuss this matter further at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,
