Dear [Client's Name],

I am writing to officially confirm my legal representation of you in relation to the criminal charges brought against you. This letter serves as our agreement regarding my role in your defense.

As your attorney, I will provide you with legal counsel and representation throughout the entirety of your case, including but not limited to:

- Preparation for court appearances.
- Filing legal motions and documents.
- Negotiation with prosecutors.
- Trial representation.

My primary goal is to ensure your rights are protected and to work towards the best possible outcome for your case. Please feel free to contact me at any time should you have questions or require updates on your situation.

Thank you for placing your trust in my services. I look forward to working with you to navigate this legal matter.

Sincerely,
