

Explanation of Seasonal Utility Rate Fluctuations

Date: [Insert Date]

Dear [Recipient's Name],

We hope this message finds you well. We are writing to explain the recent fluctuations in your utility rates, which can often cause confusion among our customers.

As you may be aware, utility rates can vary seasonally due to several factors, including:

- Increased demand during peak seasons
- Changes in energy supply costs
- Seasonal maintenance and infrastructure upgrades

This year, we have seen a significant increase in demand due to [specific reasons, e.g., unusually hot weather, increased usage in certain sectors]. As a result, we have had to adjust our rates accordingly to maintain service quality and reliability.

We are committed to providing transparent and fair pricing, and we encourage you to reach out with any questions or concerns you may have. Our customer service team is available to assist you with understanding your bill and exploring options to manage your consumption during these fluctuating periods.

Thank you for your understanding and continued support.

Sincerely,
