Dear [Customer's Name],

We hope this letter finds you well. As part of our commitment to providing transparent and fair utility rates, we are conducting a seasonal rate review for your utility bill. This review aims to assess usage patterns and ensure that billing reflects actual consumption accurately.

During this review, we will evaluate your previous usage data and any applicable seasonal rates that may impact your charges. This will ensure that you are always receiving the best possible rate based on your usage.

If you have any questions regarding your current rates or the review process, please do not hesitate to contact our customer service team at [Customer Service Phone Number] or [Customer Service Email]. We are here to assist you.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. We appreciate your continued support and look forward to serving your utility needs.

Sincerely,
