Subject: Resolution of Alliance Conflict

Dear [Recipient's Name],

We hope this message finds you well. As members of the [Alliance Name], we value the importance of collaboration and communication among our partner airlines.

We are writing to address the recent conflicts that have arisen regarding [specific issue]. It has come to our attention that these discrepancies have affected both our operations and our customers' experiences.

To resolve these issues amicably, we propose the following steps:

- Schedule a joint meeting to discuss concerns and expectations.
- Establish a timeline for resolution.
- Collaborate on a communication strategy to inform our teams and customers.

We believe that by working together, we can strengthen our alliance and enhance the service we provide to our passengers.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. We look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,
