Subject: Proposal for Feature on Eco-Friendly Destinations

Dear [Magazine Editor's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to propose an exciting feature for our in-flight magazine that focuses on eco-friendly travel destinations, aligning with the growing demand for sustainable tourism options among our readers.

This feature will highlight various eco-conscious travel spots around the world, showcasing their unique offerings and sustainable practices. Each destination will be accompanied by insightful information regarding local conservation efforts, eco-friendly accommodations, and activities that travelers can engage in to minimize their environmental impact.

Proposed Destinations:

- Bali, Indonesia - Sustainable resorts and rice terrace trekking
- Costa Rica - Volunteering for wildlife conservation
- Lisbon, Portugal - Green city initiatives and public transport
- Queenstown, New Zealand - Responsible adventure tourism
- Sweden - Eco-village experiences in the countryside

Through captivating photography and engaging narratives, this feature can inspire our readers to choose greener options when planning their next getaway. I believe this aligns perfectly with our magazine's commitment to promoting responsible travel.

I would love to discuss this proposal further and explore the potential for collaboration. Thank you for considering this opportunity to inspire our travelers towards a more sustainable future.

Best regards,
