Dear [Academic Appeals Committee/Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. My name is [Your Name], a student ID number [Your Student ID], and I am writing to formally appeal my academic probation status for the [specific semester/year].

During the [semester/year], my academic performance was adversely affected due to [briefly explain the circumstances, e.g., personal issues, health problems, family emergencies]. I recognize that my GPA has fallen below the institution's required standard, and I take full responsibility for not meeting the expectations.

Since then, I have taken proactive steps to address these issues by [describe the actions you have taken, such as seeking tutoring, attending workshops, or meeting with an academic advisor]. I am fully committed to improving my academic standing and have developed a concrete plan to ensure my future success, which includes [briefly outline your plan, such as specific courses you will take, study habits, and support resources you will utilize].

I respectfully request that you consider my appeal to lift my academic probation. I am eager to demonstrate my commitment to my education and make the necessary changes to regain my standing at [College/University Name].

Thank you for considering my appeal. I am looking forward to discussing this matter further and am hopeful for a positive resolution.

Sincerely,
