To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to formally express my commitment to participate in the [University Name] Mentorship Initiative. I am eager to contribute my time and expertise to support students in their academic and professional journey.

As a [Your Position/Title] at [Your Organization/Company], I understand the importance of guidance and support in achieving personal and academic success. I am dedicated to fostering an environment that encourages growth, learning, and development.

Through this initiative, I aim to share my knowledge and experience while helping mentees navigate their challenges and explore their interests. I am looking forward to building meaningful relationships that will enrich both my mentees' lives and my own.

Thank you for this opportunity. I am enthusiastic about the potential we have to make a positive impact through this mentorship program.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
