

Dear Team,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to inform you that I will be arriving late to the office today due to a personal commitment that requires my attention.

I anticipate that I will arrive by . I appreciate your understanding and will ensure to catch up on any missed work upon my arrival.

Thank you for your support.

Best regards,