

Dear Students,

I want to take a moment to express my appreciation for your courage and commitment to engaging in discussions about antiracism in our classroom. Your willingness to explore complex and sometimes uncomfortable topics is vital for our growth as individuals and as a community.

These conversations can be challenging, but they are essential for understanding and dismantling the systemic issues that affect us all. Remember, it is okay to have differing opinions, and it is crucial to listen, respect, and learn from one another.

As we continue our journey together, I encourage each of you to share your thoughts openly and thoughtfully. Embrace the discomfort, ask questions, and support each other as we work toward a more inclusive and equitable environment.

Thank you for your dedication to this important cause, and for standing together in solidarity.

With encouragement and respect,
