

Subject: Follow-Up on Investor Introduction

Dear [Investor's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I wanted to follow up on my previous email regarding a potential introduction to [specific contact] in [industry/sector]. I believe this connection could be beneficial for both parties, and I would love to facilitate this introduction if you're still interested.

Additionally, if you have any questions or need further information about my proposal, please feel free to reach out. I truly value your insights and would appreciate the opportunity for your guidance.

Thank you for considering this, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards,
