Dear [Committee Chair/Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally express my intent to reapply for the [Grant Name] after receiving your correspondence regarding my previous application submitted on [Original Application Date], which was unfortunately not approved.

While I was disappointed to learn of the rejection, I deeply value the feedback provided, and I have taken it to heart. I have made several revisions to my proposal, including [briefly outline the changes or improvements made]. I am confident that these adjustments enhance the project's potential for success and align it more closely with your funding priorities.

I appreciate the opportunity to submit a revised application and remain dedicated to the mission of [Organization's Mission/Goals]. I believe that with your support, this project can make a significant impact in [describe the target area or population].

Thank you for considering my renewed application. I look forward to the possibility of working together to achieve our shared goals. Please let me know if there are any further requirements or guidelines to follow for the reapplication process.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
