Dear [Grant Provider's Name],

I am writing to submit a proposal for funding our after-school program, [Program Name], which aims to provide additional educational support and enrichment activities for students in [Target Community/School]. Our program serves [Number of Students] students aged [Age Range], many of whom face various social and economic challenges.

The funding we are seeking, amounting to [Specify Amount], will be used to support [Explain Specific Uses of Funding, e.g., hiring qualified staff, purchasing educational materials, providing scholarships]. Our program has demonstrated success in improving academic performance, social skills, and overall well-being among participants.

We believe that with your support, we can continue to enhance the educational opportunities available to our local youth and make a lasting impact on our community. Enclosed you will find further details about our program and its positive outcomes.

Thank you for considering our proposal. We are hopeful for the opportunity to work together to benefit [Target Community/School]. I look forward to discussing this proposal further.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
