Dear [Hiring Manager's Name],

I am writing to express my interest in the software development position at [Company's Name] as advertised on [where you found the job posting]. As a recent graduate with a degree in Computer Science from [Your University], I have developed a strong foundation in software development principles and programming languages.

During my coursework and internships, I gained experience in [specific technologies or methodologies relevant to the job, e.g., Java, Python, Agile]. I successfully completed a project where I [briefly describe a relevant project, e.g., developed a web application that improved user engagement], which honed my skills in problem-solving and teamwork.

I am particularly drawn to [Company's Name] because of [something specific about the company or team, e.g., its commitment to innovation or specific projects]. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your team and enhance my skills further while delivering high-quality software solutions.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how I can contribute to the innovative work at [Company's Name]. Please find my resume attached for more details on my background.

Sincerely,

Your Name
