Dear [Landlord's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to discuss the current rental price of [Property Address]. After thorough consideration of the current market conditions and expenses, I would like to propose an adjustment to the rent.

As you may know, the rental market has experienced [briefly explain the market trends or changes]. Based on my research and current listings in our area, I believe that a revised rental price of [Proposed Amount] would be more aligned with the current market value.

This adjustment would ensure that the property remains competitive while also allowing me to maintain the living standards we both desire. I appreciate the quality of your property, and I want to continue our positive landlord-tenant relationship.

Thank you for considering my proposal. I am looking forward to discussing this matter with you. Please feel free to reach out to me at [Your Phone Number] or [Your Email Address].

Sincerely,
