

Dear [Neighbor's Name],

As you prepare to embark on this new chapter of your life, I want to take a moment to express how much your presence in our neighborhood will be missed. Your kindness and warmth have made our community feel like home, and I am so grateful for the memories we've shared.

From our friendly chats over the fence to the unforgettable gatherings we've had, your spirit has truly brought us all together. It's hard to say goodbye, but I am excited for you and the adventures that await in your new location.

Please keep in touch! I would love to hear about all your new experiences and maybe even visit you someday. Best wishes for your next journey -- you deserve all the happiness in the world.

Warm regards,
[Your Name]
