

Dear [Friend's Name],

I can hardly contain my excitement as I sit down to write this letter! It's been an amazing semester abroad, but my heart has missed our adventures together. I can't wait to catch up and share all the incredible experiences and stories I've gathered!

From exploring new cultures to trying exotic foods, I've had a whirlwind of a time, but nothing compares to our hangouts and late-night talks. I'm so looking forward to reuniting and hearing about all the amazing things you've been up to as well!

How about we plan a reunion at our favorite cafe? I need to refuel on all the laughs and good times we share. Let's set a date soon!

Sending you lots of hugs and can't wait to see you!

Warmly,

[Your Name]
