

Dear [Friend's Name],

As I sit down to write this letter, my heart feels heavy with the thought of saying goodbye. Our time together in the choir has been a remarkable journey filled with unforgettable moments and cherished memories.

Your voice is not just beautiful, but your spirit and friendship have truly enriched my life. From our late-night rehearsals to sharing laughter during performances, every moment will be treasured.

Although I am saddened by your departure, I am grateful for the bond we have formed. I will always cheer for you as you take on new adventures and challenges. Remember that you are not just a friend, but a cherished member of our choir family.

Thank you for everything. I will miss you dearly, but I know this is not the end. Let's stay in touch and continue to support each other from afar.

Wishing you all the best on your new path.

With love,
