

Dear [Friend's Name],

As I sit down to write this, my heart feels heavy knowing that it's time to say goodbye. You have been more than a friend to me; you have been my confidant, my partner in crime, and my family.

From our endless late-night talks to our spontaneous adventures, every moment we've shared is a cherished memory that I will carry with me, no matter where life takes us. Your kindness, laughter, and support have made such a profound impact on my life, and I am incredibly grateful for everything.

Though distance may separate us, I know our bond will remain strong. I will miss you every day, but I am excited for you and all the incredible things that lie ahead. Remember, this isn't a goodbye; it's just a "see you later." Please keep in touch, and know that I will always be here for you.

With all my love,

[Your Name]
