

Dear [Crew Member's Name],

We hope this message finds you well. It is with mixed emotions that we write to inform you that we have decided to part ways as a band.

Our journey together has been filled with unforgettable moments, and we are truly grateful for your hard work, dedication, and support. You have played an incredible role in our success, and we cannot thank you enough for your effort and passion.

As we move forward in different directions, please know that you will always be a part of our story. We wish you all the best in your future endeavors and hope that our paths may cross again someday.

Thank you for everything.

Sincerely,
[Band Name]
