

Dear Class of 2023,

As I stand before you today, I can't help but think back to all the wonderful moments we've shared. Remember that time when we thought a 10-page paper was going to be a piece of cake? Well, here's to all the late-night caffeine-fueled panic sessions that followed!

Looking at all of you, I can't help but wonder how we managed to survive without a manual on how to adult. Seriously, what do you mean "how to do taxes" and "cooking"? I thought instant noodles and takeout were a lifestyle choice!

As we prepare to step into the real world, just know that it's okay if you're still trying to figure out what you want to be when you grow up. After all, I still haven't decided whether to be a professional napper or a cat influencer.

So here's to us--may we stumble into success, trip over our dreams, and occasionally find our keys in the fridge!

Congratulations, fellow graduates!

May your future be filled with laughter, love, and a reliable Wi-Fi connection!

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
