Dear [Recipient Name],

We are writing to initiate the contract dependency assessment process as a critical component of our risk management strategy. This assessment aims to identify and analyze potential dependencies associated with our current and upcoming contracts.

In order to evaluate these dependencies effectively, we request your cooperation in providing detailed information regarding:

- Current contracts and agreements with third parties
- Potential risks associated with the dependencies
- Mitigation strategies currently in place
- Any changes to business processes that may affect these contracts

Please provide this information by [Insert Deadline]. Your input is vital to ensuring that we can manage our contractual obligations while minimizing risks effectively.

Thank you for your cooperation and support in this important initiative. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
