

Contest of Red Light Violation Fine

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to formally contest the fine I received for allegedly running a red light on [date] at [location]. My citation number is [citation number].

I believe this citation was issued in error due to [brief explanation of your reasons, e.g., traffic signal malfunction, weather conditions, etc.].

As evidence, I have included [mention any attached documents, e.g., photographs, witness statements, etc.].

I kindly request reconsideration of this fine based on the provided evidence and trust that you will review this matter thoroughly.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
