Subject: Divorce Settlement Proposal

Dear [Spouse's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. As we navigate through our divorce proceedings, I believe it is important to discuss the terms of our settlement to ensure a fair and amicable resolution. Below is a proposed outline of the settlement terms for your consideration:

1. Division of Assets

- [List of shared assets and proposed division]

2. Alimony/Spousal Support

- [Details on alimony or spousal support]

3. Child Custody and Support

- [Proposed custody arrangements and child support details]

4. Debt Settlement

- [Outline of debt responsibilities]

I believe this proposal reflects a fair distribution that considers both of our interests. I am open to discussing these terms further and making any necessary adjustments to reach an agreement that works for both of us.

Please feel free to reach out to me at your earliest convenience so we can schedule a time to discuss this proposal in detail.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
