[Recipient's Address]

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to propose an initial settlement agreement regarding our divorce. This proposal is intended to outline the terms I believe are fair and equitable for both of us.

1. Division of Assets

Both parties will agree to the following division of assets:

- Marital Home: [Proposed arrangement]
- Bank Accounts: [Proposed arrangement]
- Retirement Accounts: [Proposed arrangement]

2. Alimony/Spousal Support

I propose that we agree on spousal support of [amount] per month for a duration of [duration].

3. Child Custody and Support

Regarding our children, I propose the following custody arrangement:

- Custody Type: [Joint/Sole Custody]
- Visitation Schedule: [Details]
- Child Support: [Proposed amount]

4. Miscellaneous

Other matters to discuss include:

- Debt Division: [Proposed arrangement]
- Legal Fees: [Proposed division]

I believe this proposal is a fair starting point for us to negotiate a resolution that works for both parties. I look forward to your response and hope we can come to an amicable agreement.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
