Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. As we navigate the process of our divorce, I wanted to propose the following terms for our settlement. My intention is to reach an amicable agreement that respects both of our interests.

Proposed Terms:

- Asset Division: [Detail the proposed division of joint assets]
- Child Custody: [Outline proposed custody arrangements]
- Child Support: [State proposed child support payments]
- Spousal Support: [Detail any alimony or spousal support terms]
- Debt Responsibility: [Clarify the division of debts]

I believe these terms are reasonable and fair, and I am open to discussing them further. I hope we can come to a mutually beneficial agreement without unnecessary conflict.

Please review these terms at your earliest convenience, and let me know if you have any thoughts or adjustments you would like to propose.

Thank you for considering this proposal. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
