Dear [Editor/Journalist's Name],

I am writing to formally address the recent article published on [Publication Date], titled "[Title of the Article]," which contains false and defamatory statements about me. The claims made in your publication are not only incorrect but have also caused substantial harm to my personal and professional reputation.

The article states, "[Quote the Defamatory Statement]," which is misleading and untrue. [Provide a brief explanation of why the statement is false and the impact it has had on you.]

Due to these inaccuracies, I demand that you issue a public correction within [specify a time frame, e.g., 14 days] of receiving this letter. Failure to address this matter will compel me to take legal action to protect my rights and reputation.

Thank you for your immediate attention to this serious issue. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
