To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to formally express my dissatisfaction with the service provided by the pest control technicians from your company on [insert date of service]. Unfortunately, the experience I had with them fell short of professional standards.

During their visit, the technicians exhibited behavior that I found to be unprofessional, including [describe specific incidents, such as inadequate communication, inappropriate conduct, or failure to follow safety protocols]. Additionally, the service performed was ineffective, as I continue to experience pest issues despite the treatment provided.

I expect a certain level of professionalism and effectiveness from your company, and I believe that my experience does not reflect your usual standards. I would appreciate your prompt attention to this matter and look forward to a resolution.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
