To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to express my dissatisfaction with certain academic policies currently in place at [University Name]. As a [Your Year/Program] student, I have observed several issues that I believe adversely affect the academic experience and overall well-being of the student body.

Firstly, the policy regarding [specific policy], which I believe lacks consideration for [specific reasons]. This has led to [specific impact on students].

Additionally, the current grading system raises concerns as it does not account for [specific issue], leading to [consequences]. These policies seem to neglect the diverse needs of the student population.

I urge you to reconsider these policies and take into account the perspectives and challenges faced by the students. Open dialogues and feedback mechanisms could significantly improve the academic environment.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I hope for a positive resolution.

Sincerely,
