Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to formally express my dissatisfaction with the customer service I have received at [Fast Food Chain Name] on [specific date]. Despite multiple attempts to communicate my concerns regarding [briefly describe the issue], I have not received any response or resolution.

It is disappointing to experience such unresponsiveness, especially from a reputable establishment. I believe that prompt and effective customer service is essential for maintaining customer loyalty and satisfaction.

I would appreciate a timely response to this complaint and hope to see improvements in your customer service practices.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
