Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to formally express my concern regarding the inadequate data protection measures currently in place at [Company Name]. As a [customer/client], I have serious apprehensions about the handling, storage, and security of my personal data.

On [specific date], I noticed [describe the incident or issue]. This situation raises significant privacy concerns and undermines the trust that customers place in your organization. According to [mention relevant laws or regulations, if applicable], it is imperative that all companies implement robust data protection protocols.

I urge you to take immediate steps to address these shortcomings and enhance your data protection practices to safeguard customer information effectively. I would appreciate a timely response regarding the measures you plan to implement to resolve these issues.

Thank you for your attention to this important matter.

Sincerely,
