

Board Statement on Hostile Acquisition

Dear Stakeholders,

We would like to address the recent developments regarding the unsolicited proposal for the acquisition of our company. As the Board of Directors, it is our duty to protect the interests of our shareholders, employees, and all stakeholders associated with our company.

After careful consideration and consultation with our financial and legal advisors, we want to assure you that we are committed to safeguarding our independence and will take all necessary measures to resist this hostile bid.

We believe that our company is well-positioned for continued growth and success as an independent entity. Our strategic initiatives are aligned with creating long-term value, and we intend to stay true to our mission and vision.

We encourage all stakeholders to support our position and understand that we will communicate transparently throughout this process. Thank you for your continued support and trust in our leadership.

Sincerely,

Board of Directors
