Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to propose a collaboration for an international research project that aims to [briefly describe the goal of the research]. Our institutions share a common interest in this area, and I believe that by joining forces, we can significantly enhance the impact and reach of our findings.

The proposed project will focus on [provide a brief overview of the project]. I am confident that with our combined expertise and resources, we can achieve [mention potential outcomes and benefits].

We are seeking funding from [mention any specific funding bodies or grants], and we believe that our partnership will strengthen our proposal. I would love to discuss this idea with you further and explore how we can collaborate effectively.

Please let me know your availability for a meeting in the coming weeks. I am looking forward to the possibility of working together on this exciting initiative.

Thank you for considering this opportunity. I am enthusiastic about the potential impact we can make together.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
