Dear [Lender's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to discuss the terms of the bridging loan proposal we previously discussed. After thorough consideration and review, I would like to propose a few adjustments that I believe would be mutually beneficial.

1. Loan Amount: I would like to propose an adjustment in the loan amount to better meet the project's requirements.
2. Interest Rate: Considering current market trends, I propose a reduction in the interest rate to enhance the loan's feasibility.
3. Repayment Schedule: I suggest a more flexible repayment schedule that would help alleviate financial pressure during the initial phases of the project.

I am confident that these modifications will not only support the project's success but also strengthen our partnership moving forward. I would appreciate the opportunity to discuss this further and find a suitable agreement.

Thank you for considering my proposal. I look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,
