Dear [Recipient's Name],

We hope this letter finds you well. We are writing to propose an exciting collaborative funding opportunity that we believe will enhance the impact of our sector organizations.

As [Your Organization's Name], we have been dedicated to [briefly describe your mission or goals]. We recognize the importance of collaboration in addressing [specific sector issue or challenge] and would like to join forces with [Recipient's Organization's Name] to create a comprehensive approach that maximizes our collective resources and expertise.

We are seeking funding to support [briefly outline the project or initiative]. This collaboration aims to [describe the expected outcomes and benefits]. Together, we can leverage our strengths and expand our reach within the community.

We kindly request your support in pursuing funding opportunities, including [mention specific grants, partnerships, or funding sources relevant to your collaboration]. We believe that with our combined efforts, we can create a significant and lasting impact.

We would love the opportunity to discuss this proposal further and explore how we can work together. Please let us know a convenient time for us to meet or speak. We look forward to your positive response.

Thank you for considering this collaborative venture.

Sincerely,
