Dear [Landlord's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally appeal for the recovery of my security deposit amounting to [insert amount], which was paid on [insert date].

As you are aware, I vacated the property located at [insert property address] on [insert move-out date]. I believe I left the premises in good condition and adhered to all lease agreement terms. However, I was informed that a portion of my security deposit will not be returned due to [insert reason provided by landlord].

To provide clarification, [insert your counter-arguments or support for the return of the deposit]. I have attached [mention any documents or photos] for your reference.

In light of this information, I kindly request a reevaluation of my security deposit return and hope to resolve this matter amicably. Thank you for your attention to this issue, and I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
