

Writing Workshop Highlight and Summary

Date: October 15, 2023

Location: Community Library, Room 101

Workshop Overview

On October 15, 2023, we hosted a writing workshop focused on enhancing narrative skills among participants. The event saw a diverse group of attendees, from beginners to seasoned writers.

Key Highlights

- Guest Speaker: Award-winning author Jane Smith shared insights on character development.
- Interactive Sessions: Participants engaged in exercises that encouraged creativity and critical thinking.
- Feedback Circles: Attendees received constructive critiques on their written pieces.

Summary of Activities

The workshop included:

1. Opening Remarks
2. Guest Speech on Storytelling Techniques
3. Group Writing Exercises
4. Feedback and Discussion
5. Closing Reflections

Participant Feedback

Overall, participants expressed a high level of satisfaction, emphasizing the value of peer feedback and the opportunity to learn from an established author.

Next Steps

We plan to host additional workshops in the coming months, focusing on different aspects of writing. Stay tuned for more details!

Thank you for your participation!

Best regards,
The Writing Workshop Team