

Weather Update for the Annual Cycling Race

Dear Cyclists and Participants,

We are excited to welcome you to the Annual Cycling Race scheduled for this weekend. As we approach the event, we want to keep you informed about the weather forecast to ensure a safe and enjoyable experience.

Weather Forecast:

- Date: Saturday, October 14, 2023
- Temperature: 68degF (20degC)
- Conditions: Partly cloudy with a slight chance of rain in the afternoon.
- Wind: 10 mph from the northwest

We recommend that all participants come prepared for variable weather conditions. Please dress in layers and carry rain gear just in case.

If there are any significant changes in the weather forecast, we will send out an update promptly. Thank you for your understanding, and we look forward to seeing you all at the race!

Best regards,

Your Cycling Race Organizing Committee
