Dear [Recipient's Name],

We are writing to propose an elevation of our corporate credit line with [Recipient's Company Name]. Over the past [duration of time], we have established a solid partnership and demonstrated our commitment to meeting our financial obligations promptly.

In light of our growth and the evolving needs of our business, we believe that an increased credit line would enable us to [briefly describe the reasons for requesting the increase, e.g., expand operations, manage cash flow, invest in opportunities]. This adjustment would not only support our operational capacity but also strengthen our ongoing collaboration.

We are requesting an increase of [specific amount] to our existing credit limit of [current credit limit]. With this elevated credit line, we anticipate [discuss potential benefits to both companies, e.g., increased orders, prompt payments, etc.].

We are confident that this change will be mutually beneficial and enhance our existing relationship. We would appreciate the opportunity to discuss this proposal in more detail at your convenience.

Thank you for considering our request. We look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,
