Subject: Appeal for Debt Consolidation Loan

Dear [Lender's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally appeal the decision made regarding my application for a debt consolidation loan submitted on [insert application date]. After reviewing your response, I would like to provide additional information that I believe may support my case.

As you may know, my current financial situation includes multiple outstanding debts, which I am struggling to manage. A debt consolidation loan would significantly ease my financial burden by allowing me to combine these debts into a single, manageable payment.

[Provide any relevant personal details, circumstances, or improvements in financial situation that may strengthen your appeal.]

Thank you for considering my appeal. I hope to discuss this matter further and find a solution that works for both parties. I can be reached at [Your Phone Number] or [Your Email Address].

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
